

Citizenship

Florida 4-H Citizenship Programs – Tying Them All Together to the Citizenship Mission Mandate

Tues. 1:15 – 3:15 pm

Tracy Tesdall, South RSA; Vickie Mullins, Santa Rosa County; Debbie Nistler, Bradford County; Kay Brown, Escambia County; Gary Thomas, Flagler County; Dr. Dale Pracht, State Organizational Systems Specialist; Wendi Armstrong, State 4-H Council Adviser; Pam Phillippe, Charlotte County; Karen Miliffe, Osceola County

Learn all the details of the new logic models for the Florida 4-H Citizenship Mission Mandate adopted by the Citizenship/Leadership Curriculum action team. Includes objectives & overviews for 4-H Legislature, 4-H Day at the Capitol, Citizenship Washington Focus, service learning and 4-H Councils/leadership programs supported by Florida 4-H. We will connect the dots between the citizenship logic models and the Agents' POW.

Florida 4-H Legislature: Getting the Most Out of It

Tues. 3:45 – 5:15pm

Tracy Tesdall, South RSA; Vickie Mullins, Santa Rosa County; Debbie Nistler, Bradford County

Would you like your youth to feel more prepared for the 4-H Legislature program? Learn about the preparation materials introduced in 2011 and what is new for the spring of 2012. From youth participant to adult attendee modules there are numerous resources available for this 4-H Program of Distinction. Also learn how to use the 4-H Legislature program momentum to springboard a civics 4-H project club.

Marketing 4-H to the Military Population in Your County

Weds. 8:30am – 12:30pm

Dr. Dale Pracht, State Organizational Systems Specialist; Georgene Bender, SouthCentral RSA; Jennifer Bearde, Okaloosa County; Dr. Paula Davis, Bay County; Kay Brown, Escambia County; Vickie Mullins, Santa Rosa County; Brent Broaddus, Hillsborough County; Andy Toelle, Duval County; Gus Koerner, Brevard County

By selecting this grant training option, you will gain innovative marketing strategies to identify, market, and promote your 4-H clubs to military families living in your community. In addition, you will learn strategies to network with key community members, local businesses, organizational leaders, and schools that will enhance your current 4-H program outreach efforts. You will learn how to apply this approach to your current plan of work as well as expand your youth contacts without adding another new program to your already full workload.